TIGER PREVIEW

Lady Tiger Season Outlook

The Lady Tigers start the season on a fresh slate...A brand new coaching staff and three new players. After two seasons as a Lady Tiger assistant coach, David Crosier took over the reins of the program this past spring when head coach Roger Lefebvre resigned after 2 years.

With Crosier leading the club, fans should see a faster-pace game led by Junior College All-American selection from Coffeyville Community College Twania Bennett who red shirted last season because of an anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) tear "Twania is a great athlete with All-American potential. She is a proven winner who can score inside and out. Twania's presence and winning attitude in the gym is what this team lacked last season" – Coach David Crosier.

"We are really going to push the ball this year. We have exceptional shooters who have the green light to shoot on fast breaks, and with our post players running the floor puts us in a great position for offensive rebounds. Because of Coach Vanco's coaching in the weight room we will be more physical this year inside and outside the paint. I think our strength is going to set us apart from the rest of the teams in the conference" – Coach David Crosier.

Salem International returns only two starters this year, including sophomore guard Brooke Lamb and junior guard Chrissy Luchuck. Lamb had to step up early last season due to unfortunate injuries. She took the challenge and had a super freshman year. Luchuck a 5'6" guard was All Conference Honorable Mention last season.

Seniors Cathy Vanco, Charlis Jordan, and Shacara Shackles also return to this year's Lady Tiger team. Vanco is a physical post player who bangs inside, and goes up strong for rebounds. Jordan (6-0), plays hard inside and can pull out and knock down the three. Shacara Shackles, the smallest forward, works extra hard to get rebounds and score points. All three should see increased playing time in the paint.

Three newcomers also join the Lady Tigers this season. Junior college transfer Lashonda Tucker (5-10) is an exceptional athlete who played at St. Catherine's JC. She was also Cathy Vanco's teammate at Garden City Community College. Tucker is a great rebounder and will see a lot of minutes at the forward position. Freshman guards Courtney Weekley is an exceptional shooter while Monique is on her way to be the team's best rebounding and defensive player. Both compliment each other.

"We are a good offensive team. Chrissy, Brooke, and Courtney can really shoot the ball. Every player knows their role on the team. Twania is unstoppable...no one will be able to defend her in the conference. Cathy brings us that physical presence we need inside, while Lashonda ads athleticism to the paint. It will be an interesting year for us. People aren't expecting much from us, which is fine. I like being at the bottom because up is the only place to go" – Coach David Crosier.

40 CATHY VANCO

SENIOR 6'0", CENTER

MEDINA, OHIO

At A Glance...

Cathy Vanco is a 6'1" physical post player who has developed tremendously over the summer months by working on her post moves and rebounding. She led her team in preseason conditioning by winning the Pre-season High Intensity Training Award. She is also one of this year's co-captains.

Cathy came to school in great condition. She worked hard in preseason and has developed into a much stronger athlete. As a result, she will see more minutes, and should be one of the team's leading rebounders - Coach David Crosier.

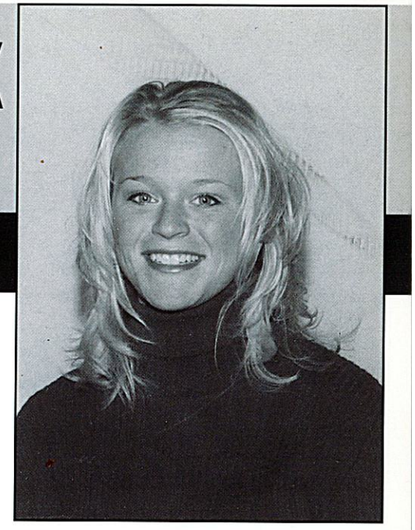
22 CHRISSY LUCHUCK
CAPTAIN

JUNIOR 5'6", GUARD

SHINNSTON, WEST VIRGINIA



At A Glance...

Chrissy enters her junior year as this year's co-captain. During the 1999-2000 season, she averaged 11.6 ppg, and was an All-Conference Honorable Mention. She has excellent 3-point range, and can take her opponents to the basket. This past summer, Chrissy played overseas with the top players from the WVIAC for Planet Basketball. She raised over $2,000 by asking for donations, and having car washes. She traveled to Paris, Holland, and Belgium for 2 weeks. She had the opportunity to play against exceptional athletes, and see another part of the world. Planet Basketball won 2 of their 5 games.
Chrissy is always giving 110%, and is never taking a play off. She is a great leader for this team, and will continue to contribute defensively this season - Coach David Crosier.

3 TWANIA BENNETT

JUNIOR 5'8", GUARD

STEUBENVILLE, OHIO

At A Glance...

Last season, Twania only played in 2 games because she tore her anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) early in the season. She worked hard over the summer rehabing her knee, and is ready to step on the court again. She is the team's most athletic player who leads by example. Twania was a pre-season Junior College All-American selection at Coffeyville Community College. I expect Twania to be one of the top point guards in the conference...country. She is an outstanding passer who sees the whole floor. Twania has the potential to be an All-American candidate-Coach David Crosier.

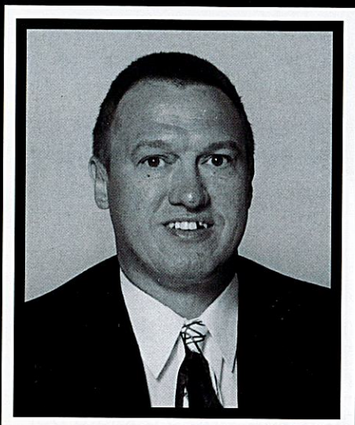
Meet the Coaches...

Head Women's Basketball Coach

DAVID CROSIER



David Crosier enters his first year as the head coach at Salem International University women's basketball team with one goal in mind-to bring this program to the next level. It is a hard task, but with Crosier's enthusiasm, experience, and determination and most importantly, a team ready to work, the rest should take care of itself.

Last year, Dave was the assistant coach at the former Salem-Teikyo University under Coach Roger Lefebvre. He was in charge of various tasks such as: recruiting, academic monitoring, and many behind the scene jobs. He accepted the job as acting head coach last spring, and since then the program has taken a turn for the best. He recruited some great freshman that should help the program tremendously.

Joshua, Mother, Coach Crosier, Jason

Before coming to Salem, Crosier was the Head Women's Basketball Coach at Ohio University Eastern (97-98), and was then an assistant at his alma mater, West Liberty State College (95-90). During his two seasons at West Liberty, his team finished 45-14 winning a WVIAC conference championship, and a NCAA Division II East Regional appearance. In 1992, he was an assistant at Walsh University where he directed scouting and recruiting. From 1980 to 1985 Crosier was part of Kent State University Tuscarawas' (JC) women's basketball team serving as the assistant for 3 years, and then worked his way up to head coach. From 1989-1990, he worked with Coach Harry Huggins' boys high school basketball team. Following that experience, Crosier coached Conotton Valley High School girls basketball team to a second place finish in the OVAC.

Crosier played college basketball at Kent State Tucarawas for two years, and then earned his Bachelor of Arts in Physical Education from West Liberty State College. He is also the Head Women's tennis Coach at Salem International University. He has two sons, Joshua and Jason. Crosier is single and resides in Clarksburg.

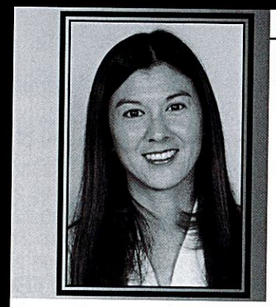
Meet the Coaches...

Assistant Basketball Coach

JESSICA VANCO

Jessica Vanco is Salem International University's newest addition to the coaching staff. Vanco is a graduate of Boston University where she earned a Master's degree in Education, concentrating in Sport Psychology. During her playing days at St. Bonaventure University (New York), Vanco captained her team and finished 6th in the Atlantic 10 in rebounding, while earning a degree in Psychology. Playing Division I basketball has given her a unique perspective on coaching from a players point of view. Most of her coaching has been on a volunteer basis working as a clinician and coach at various summer camps during her collegiate career. She plans to use her sport psychology techniques to help motivate the team. Coaching this season brings added bonuses for Vanco, as she coaches her younger sister Cathy Vanco (Senior, Center). Vanco, originally from Ohio, is single and resides inSalem.

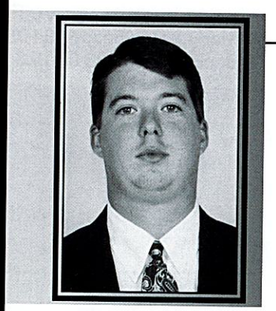
Meet the Managers...



Sandy Olsen

Head Athletic Trainer (MS, ATC)

Entering her 3rd year at Salem International University, Sandy comes to SIU from McGuffey High School in Claysville, PA where she was the Head Athletic Trainer. Sandy has been involved with athletic training for over 10 years. A graduate of Long Beach State (1996) with a Bachelor's degree in Kinesiology, Olsen had the opportunity to work with National Champion and Olympic Athletes as a Student Trainer. In 1998, Sandy completed her Master of Science degree in Athletic Training at California University (PA). Olsen, originally from San Diego, California, is single and resides in Clarksburg, WV.



Chris Cross

Assistant Athletic Trainer (MS, ATC)

Entering his 2nd year as a member of the Salem International University Athletic Training staff, Chris comes to SIU from Athens, OH Physical Therapy where he was the Sports Medicine Coordinator. He also worked with several high schools, and their athletic teams while living in Athens. Chris graduated from Alderson Broaddus College in 1996 with a Bachelor's degree in Sports Medicine. He resides in his hometown Salem, WV with his wife Barbara and his 1-year-old son Mason.
